

The Revised Common Lectionary and the Reformed Confessions

Some church communions have long used various confessions and catechisms as touchstones to summarize key biblical teachings and doctrines. Among the better known such documents are the Heidelberg Catechism, the Westminster Confession, Luther's Shorter & Longer Catechisms. On this page you will find a resource developed by Rev. Chadd Huizinga, a recent graduate of Calvin Seminary and now a pastor at the Parklane Christian Reformed Church in Portland, Oregon. Chadd has traced Lectionary texts to specific parts of the Heidelberg Catechism and the Belgic Confession. Whether or not you are in a tradition that already uses these confessions as touchstones, reading how Lectionary passages are dealt with in these confessions might just spark some creative thoughts in you that may help jumpstart your sermon-writing process. You can view the Heidelberg Catechism here and then also the Belgic Confession here.
